PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Twenty-Fifth Edition

The South Carolina Higher Education Statistical Abstract is a comprehensive, single-source compilation of tables and graphs which report data frequently requested by members of the coordinating board, staffs of colleges and universities, the legislature, state government officials and the general public.

Located in the Abstract are the latest statistics on enrollment, degrees awarded, faculty, tuition and fees, funding and other factual data. A glossary of relevant terms is included at the beginning of each section.

The Abstract would not have been possible without the assistance of the college and university institutional representatives with the Commission's CHE reports and the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS). The help and support of these individuals are extremely important to the Commission's data collection process and related reports. Their assistance is appreciated.

Migration of First-Time Undergraduate Transfers

Migration of FIRST-TIME UNDERGRADUATE TRANSFERS

IPEDS (Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System) defines a transfer student as a student entering the reporting institution for the first time but known to have previously attended a postsecondary institution at the same level (e.g., undergraduate, graduate). The student may transfer with or without credit.

Graduation Rates

One of the most talked about educational indicators in South Carolina (and in the nation) is the “graduation rate” of a college or university. What is it exactly? How is it figured? Why is it important? And perhaps, most importantly, what can this number, often expressed as a percent, tell us about quality at our colleges and universities?

First, it is important to understand that the reason in South Carolina for originally devising a graduation rate was a question from the South Carolina Legislature as part of ACT 255 of 1992. At that time the Legislature wanted to know, “How many years does it take for a first time college student to graduate from a public college or university in South Carolina if the student goes to school full time and does not change institutions?” All of the public colleges and universities met with the Commission on Higher Education and agreed upon a process to calculate a graduation rate, which in turn would answer this question.

The data has since been standardized on a national level. The National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in its ongoing effort to report on the condition of postsecondary education in the United States started an effort in 1997 to collect data on completion or graduation rates and transfer-out rates of full-time, first-time certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students. This collection has been identified as the Graduation Rate Survey (GRS) and is a component of the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS).

“These data will provide comparable graduation rate statistics for all postsecondary institutions in the nation. The data will also provide much needed information to researchers as an institutional outcome measure and it will offer insight into the relationship between the changing demographics of college-going cohorts within different types of institutions.” (Form IPEDS-GRS-2, page 2) The information collected can also be used by institutions for the Student Right-to-Know Act. Additionally, cohort data has been added for athletes therefore enabling this graduation data to be provided to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) by NCES.

THE SAT PROGRAM

The SAT I: Reasoning Test and the SAT II: Subject Tests, the primary components of the SAT Program, are designed to assess many of the skills that are important to student's success in college. Because the subject matter of high school courses as well as grading standards varies widely, the tests have been developed to provide a common standard against which students can be compared. Most students also complete the optional Student Descriptive Questionnaire (SDQ) when they register to take SAT Program tests, providing valuable contextual information to aid in interpreting and understanding individual and group scores.

A snapshot of national SAT takers indicates that:

- Forty-six percent of this year's high school graduates took the SAT – the highest percentage ever.
- The percentage of minority students taking the SAT is also at an all-time high of 35 percent.
- Thirty-seven (37%) percent of SAT takers will be first generation college students.
- Gender gaps in SAT verbal and math score persist, but are slowly shrinking. The gap in average male and female verbal score is 5 points, down from 8 points a decade ago. Similarly, a decade ago the gap in average math scores was 37 points. It is now down to 34 points.

Statewide Scholarships and Grants

Administered by the SC Commission on Higher Education

Legislative Incentives for Future Excellence (LIFE) Scholarship

The LIFE Scholarship Program is a merit-based program that was established in 1998 to provide incentives for students to be better prepared for college and to increase access to higher education. Students attending a two-year or technical institution may receive up to the cost-of-tuition plus a $300 book allowance towards the cost-of-attendance each academic year (The two-year private institution may award up to the average cost-of-tuition at the State's two-year regional campuses). Students attending a four-year institution may receive up to $4,700, not to exceed cost-of-tuition, plus a $300 book allowance towards the cost-of-attendance each academic year.

In order to qualify, first-time entering freshmen attending a two-year or technical college, students must earn a 3.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale, uniform grading scale (UGS) or the approved policies of the school district at the end of the senior year.

In order to qualify at a four-year institution, first-time entering freshmen must meet two of the following three criteria:

- (1) 3.0 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, UGS, or approved policies of the school district at the end of the senior year
- (2) 1100 SAT/24 ACT
- (3) Rank in the top 30% of graduating class

To renew or earn the LIFE Scholarship, students must earn a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale consistent with the policies and procedures of the institution for graduation purposes and earn a minimum of thirty credit hours if a rising sophomore; sixty credit hours if a rising junior; or ninety credit hours if a rising senior.

Lottery Tuition Assistance

The Lottery Tuition Assistance Program was established under the 2001 S.C. Education Lottery Act and implemented during the fall 2002 term. Since funding for the program is dependent upon lottery proceeds and the number of eligible students, the actual award amount is determined on a term-by-term basis. Each academic year, students must meet the following minimum requirements in order to be eligible:

- Be a S.C. resident
- Be enrolled in at least six credit hours each term as a degree-seeking student
- Make satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of the degree requirements
- Does not owe a refund or repayment on any federal/state aid or be in default on any student loans
- File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Form
- Must not eligible for or a recipient of a LIFE Scholarship

To renew Lottery Tuition Assistance, students must earn a cumulative 2.0 grade point average after attempting twenty-four credit hours.

Palmetto Fellows Scholarship

The Palmetto Fellows Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship program that was established in 1988 to recognize the most academically talented high school seniors in S.C. and encourage them to attend college in the State. Each Palmetto Fellow may receive a scholarship of up to $6,700 annually, less any other gift aid received. The scholarship must be applied towards the cost of attendance for a maximum of eight full-time terms of study toward the first baccalaureate degree at a participating senior institution in S.C. Students cannot be a recipient of the LIFE or HOPE Scholarship. In order to submit an application, students must meet the following minimum requirements:

- (1) 1200 SAT/27 ACT by scholarship deadline
- (2) 3.5 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale or the UGS at the end of junior year
- (3) Rank in the top 5% of the class at the end of either the sophomore or junior year

To renew the Palmetto Fellows Scholarship, students must earn thirty credit hours each academic year and a cumulative 3.0 grade point average.

SC HOPE Scholarship

The SC HOPE Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship that was established under the 2001 S.C. Education Lottery Act and implemented in fall 2002 to provide funding for students who do not qualify for a LIFE or Palmetto Fellows Scholarship. Funding for this program is dependent upon lottery proceeds. Students may receive up to $2,500 plus a $150 book allowance towards the cost-of-attendance for the first-year of attendance only. In order to qualify, first-time entering freshmen attending a four-year institution must earn a cumulative 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale, UGS, or the approved policies of the school district at the end of the senior year.

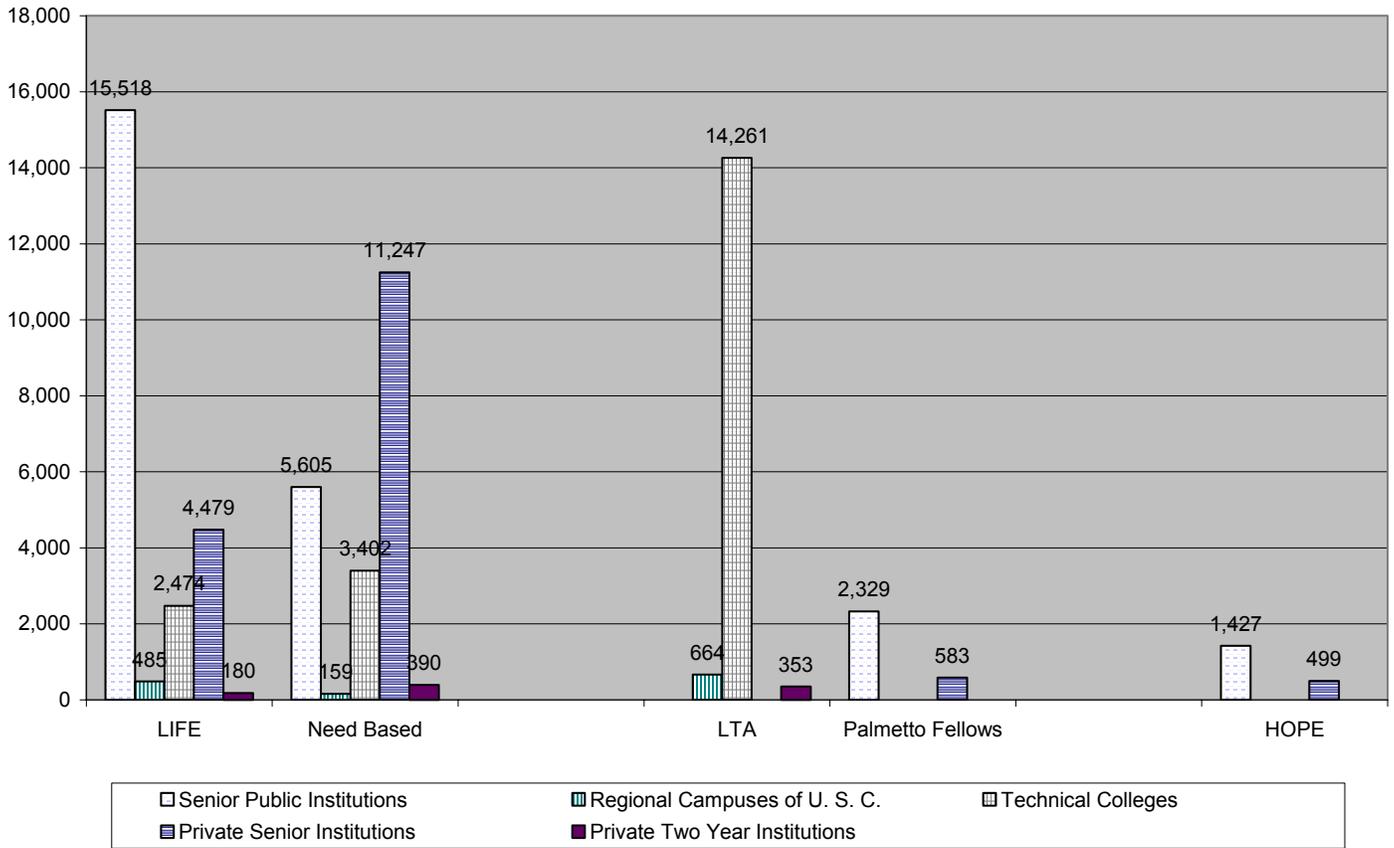

The HOPE Scholarship is only for the freshmen year. The student can then qualify for LIFE under the usual criteria.

S.C. Need-based Grants

The S.C. Need-based Grants Program was established in 1996 to provide financial assistance to the state's neediest students. Students may receive up to $2,500 annually if enrolled full-time and up to $1,250 annually if enrolled part-time. Based upon the results of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Form, the institution at which the student is enrolled determines the exact award amount, less any other gift aid received. The grant must be applied directly towards the cost-of-attendance for a maximum of eight full-time equivalent terms.

To renew a Need-based Grant, students must earn a requisite number of credit hours based upon their enrollment status and earn a cumulative 2.0 grade point average.

Extraordinary (Below-the-Line) Funding FY 2002-2003

Since the inception of the use of a methodology to determine the needs of higher education institutions in South Carolina, the Commission has recognized that there are certain costs that are extraordinary to individual institutions and are not included in the methodology. In recognition of these extraordinary costs the state legislation specifically provides funding for those costs which meet certain criteria specified by the Commission. Below is a listing of items and funding, by recurring and non-recurring categories, for FY 2002-2003.

Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS)

Finance Survey

The National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) adopted a new IPEDS survey form for collecting finance data from public colleges and universities. The new form follows the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) procedures to accommodate GASB Statements 34 and 35. All of South Carolina's public colleges and universities began reporting in the new format this year.

The new report form has substantially changed from prior years. Because of the changes in the format, the IPEDS Finance Survey data previously included in the Statistical Abstract for each public institution is not included in this edition of the Abstract. However, the data will be available on the Commission's website in a document separate from the Abstract by June, 2003. Institutional data will be included in future editions of the Statistical Abstract.

FACILITIES OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

Colleges and universities conduct a wide range of activities in pursuit of their missions as institutions of higher education. The physical facilities of an educational institution affect all segments of the institution and effectively must provide the level of service necessary to support the institution's objectives in fulfilling its mission.

The degree to which each institution's facilities fulfill any or all of the functions necessary to its mission depends in a large measure on the goals of the institution, its size, and the availability of resources. An institution's facilities must be adequate to serve the programmatic needs of the institution. However, many outside factors often conflict with this overriding requirement. These include changing enrollment patterns which necessitate flexibility in functional use, proliferation of codes and standards, increasing costs for operation and maintenance, and austere funding.

The effective allocation and utilization of physical facilities is essential if an institution of higher education is to meet its objectives in the areas of instruction, research, and public service.

FACULTY IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Higher education institutions have changed dramatically in the past 20 to 30 years as a workplace. Essentially, an institution is a workplace of two cultures: faculty and administrators. In the past, the faculty has been the dominant group affecting the conditions of the workplace with administrators being the subservient to the influence of the faculty. Today the role and importance of each group has changed considerably and each affects the other as the institution adjusts to a rapid environmental and social evolution.

Faculty are pivotal resources around which postsecondary education revolves. They determine curriculum content, student performance standards, and quality of students' preparation for careers. Faculty members perform research and development work which can advance this nation's technological and economic well-being. Through their public service activities, they also contribute to the public good.

Faculty and Administrators Profile - Women and minorities increased their representation among full-time faculty and administrators at public colleges in the 1990's. In the SREB region in 1998, women accounted for 33 percent of the faculty at public four-year colleges and 51 percent of the faculty at public two-year colleges. More than 40 percent of the administrators at public four-year colleges and more than 43 percent at public two-year colleges were women. In the late 1990s African-Americans and Hispanics accounted for 10 percent of full-time faculty members in public four-year colleges and universities in the SREB states, compared with the national average of 8 percent. These representation rates both increased from rates in the early 1990s of 9 percent and 7 percent, respectively. For public two-year colleges in the late 1990s, African-Americans and Hispanics made up 12 percent of the faculty in SREB states and 10 percent of the faculty nationally – up from 11 percent and 9 percent, respectively. While African-American faculty members in public four-year colleges in the SREB region became less concentrated in predominantly and historically black colleges, these institutions still employed 57 percent of the region's African-American faculty. Nationwide, African American faculty also became less concentrated in predominantly and historically black colleges – 37 percent, compared with 40 percent five years earlier.

In the late 1990s, African-Americans and Hispanics accounted for 16 percent of the administrators at public four-year college in the SREB states, compared with 13 percent nationally. Among administrators at public two-year colleges in the SREB region, 17 percent were African-American or Hispanic; nationally, 14 percent were African-American or Hispanic.

Performance Funding A Brief History and Background

Act 359 of 1996 amended sections of the South Carolina state code relating to the Commission on Higher Education (in particular Section 59-103-5, et al) to dramatically change the mechanism for determining state funding of public higher education. The legislation mandated that the Commission, in consultation with institutions and other key stakeholders, develop and use a performance system for determining institutional funding. The law specified that quality of higher education institutions could be measured by considering 9 critical success factors with 37 indicators suggested to measure those 9 areas and provided a three-year phase-in period to develop a system that would base all funding of public higher education in South Carolina on performance.

To meet its mandate, the Commission on Higher Education (CHE) developed a two-part plan: 1) a determination of financial need for the institutions – resulting in the Mission Resource Requirement (MRR) to identify the total amount of money an institution should receive based on comparable costs for institutions of similar mission, size and complexity of programs and 2) an evaluation process whereby each institution’s performance on the measures is rated and funding is allocated contingent on the ratings. Developed in 1996-97 and substantially revised in 1999, the plan was phased in over time so that by the third year, as required, an assessment of performance on all indicators as listed in law (§59-103-30(B)) determined all general operating funding for FY00.

The Commission has continued to work with the 33 public institutions in South Carolina to refine and improve the system since its inception. Major changes to the system from that as initially adopted occurred in the first full-year of implementation (FY99 measurement impacting FY00 allocations.) In that year, a change in scoring provided for ratings on each performance indicator to be on a 3-point scale rather than the 6-point scale. Additionally, a scale was applied to the resulting overall average performance score so that dollars were allocated on the basis of five performance categories rather than individual overall scores. Many of the indicator measurement definitions have changed since they were first defined in 1996 and 1997. Most such changes occurred in FY00 that impacted FY01 allocations with changes to definitions occurring to a lesser degree the following years. In 2000-01, the method for identifying the standards used to determine performance changed from a system whereby each institution negotiated its own standards to one where standards were determined for sectors of institutions based on available national, state and regional data and peer data. Additionally, during that same year, the Commission added a component to the 3-point scale used to score indicator performance to provide recognition of individual institutional improvement over past years. The last significant revision occurred effective FY02. The Commission reduced the number of indicators used in determining overall performance to 13 or 14 key indicators. The reduced set of indicators had been identified by the Commission working in consultation with institutions and other key stakeholders as those that had proven to be most informative and useful in assessing performance and that were best reflective of sector and institutional missions.

The Commission publication “Performance Funding Workbook: A Guide to SC’s Performance Funding System for Public Higher Education” provides the latest details on SC’s performance funding system and measures used in determining performance. This publication and additional details are available on the Commission’s website www.che.sc.gov by selecting “Performance Funding” under Planning, Assessment, and Performance Funding Division.
